Administration

Dear Seniors:

I wish to thank each of you for your cooperation over the past three years. You have made great strides both academically and socially. No doubt your experiences at Melrose High will have a direct bearing on your endeavors.

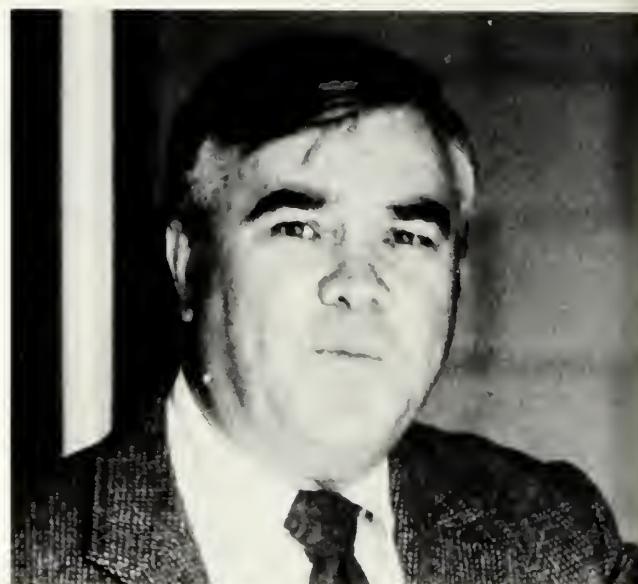

I wish it were possible for me to guarantee each of you a successful and happy life.

I will say with all sincerity that the character and attitude exhibited by this senior class will carry its members a long way in dealing with life's challenges and perils.

Go forth into the adult world. Be willing to make contributions that will benefit others, in order that future generations will be afforded the opportunities you have experienced during your youth.

Good Luck,

Claude H. Croston
Principal

Dear Class of 1985,

Congratulations to each and every one of you upon your graduation from Melrose High School.

May all of you be most successful in your preparations for your chosen careers.

Above all, I wish you all happy and healthy lives as you go on to be contributing members of our society.

Sincerely,

Timothy F. Hurley
Assistant Principal

BEST WISHES TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1985

I hope whatever your hopes and aspirations for the future are they will be realized with success; remembering success is achieved only with sacrifice and commitment.

If you are willing to work hard and appreciate your rewards, you will certainly be a successful class and a proud addition to the "MELROSE FAMILY."

Sincerely,

Jim Frontero
Assistant Principal

Dedication

Dr. George R. Quinn
1927-1985

We dedicate this yearbook to the memory of Dr. George R. Quinn.

The Melrose community was shocked and saddened to learn of the untimely death of Dr. Quinn in February of 1985. Dr. Quinn served as our Superintendent of Schools from 1969 until his retirement in December of 1983.

Dr. Quinn left many legacies to our school system including the new high school, a rejuvenated curriculum and model programs in occupational education and pupil services. We were fortunate to have as our superintendent a man of vision who was willing and able to lead. He inspired many of us. Although his passing has taken him from our midst, his spirit will continue to thrive in our community for generations.

Senior Officers

PRESIDENT BILL LOWELL

Message from the Senior Class President

Many thanks to the class of 1985. The past three years will be remembered as the best years of our lives. Even though we may have had our differences, we will always remember each other as friends as we go our separate ways.

Hopefully, Melrose High School has prepared us for the future. Graduating from high school is a happy time, but it is mixed with sadness, as we may never see each other as long as we live. However, that does not mean we will never meet again! I wish you all success and happiness in the future. I hope you all get your slice of "American Pie." Remember me because I'll always remember you.

Thank you M.H.S.!

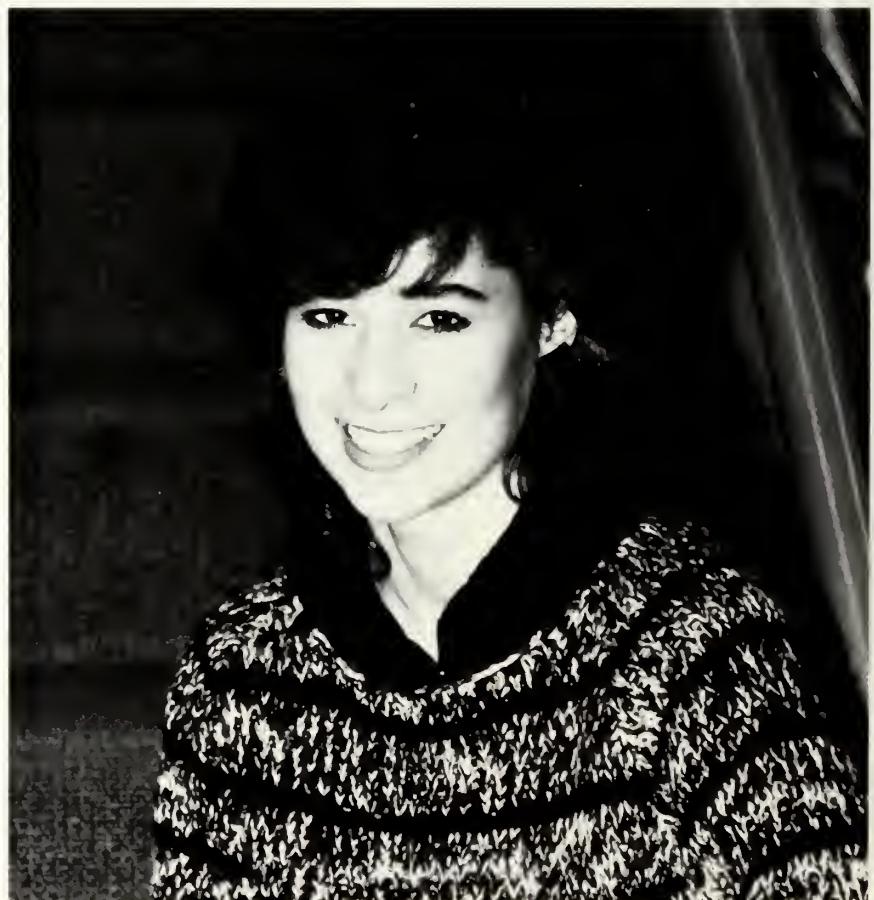

Charles W. Lowell (Bill)

VICE PRESIDENT MARY PHILLIPS

Message from the Vice-President

The class of 1985 would like to thank our class advisors, Ms. Carrabis and Ms. McCauly, for their wonderful support and guidance. Thanks to them we have had a very successful senior year. The Halloween Party and the Winterball were thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. This senior class was fortunate to be the first class in many years to hold our proms in two different halls, instead of having both at Caruso's Diplomat.

As we all go our separate ways, we will carry with us the fondest memories from Melrose High School. The best of luck to the graduating class. Many thanks to Mr. Claude H. Croston and the faculty for their help and cooperation.

Nothing Gold Can Stay

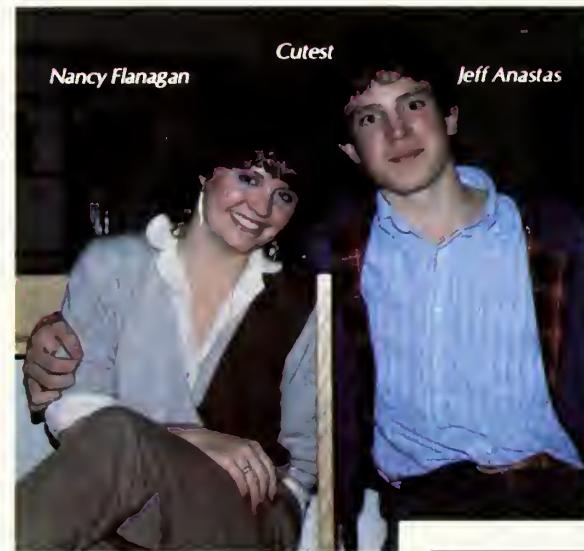

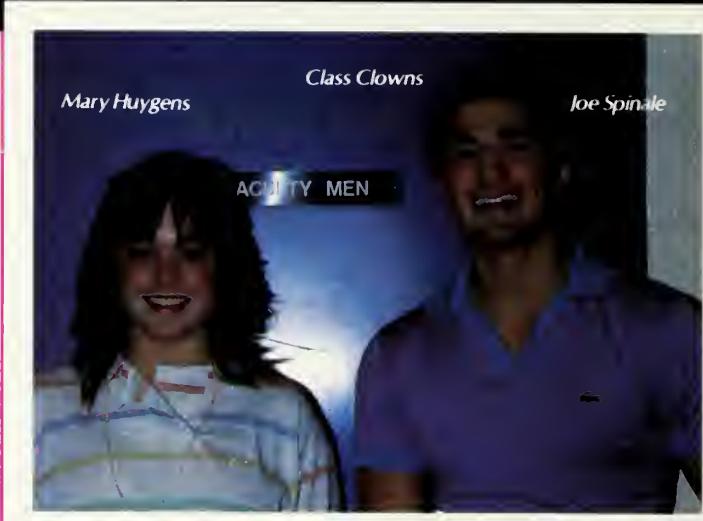

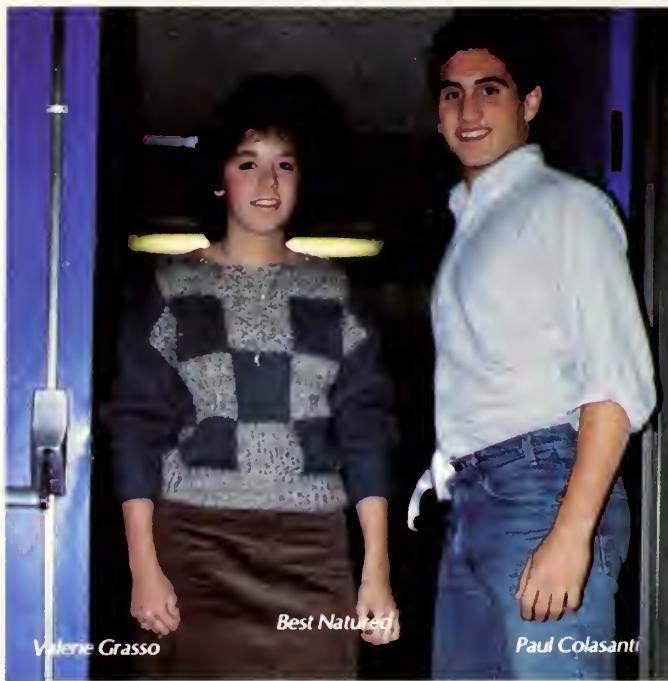

*Nature's first green is gold, Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.*

-Robert Frost-

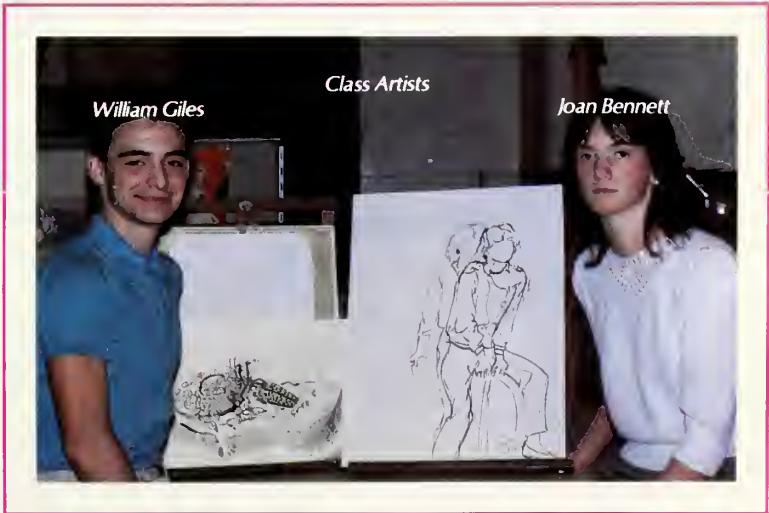

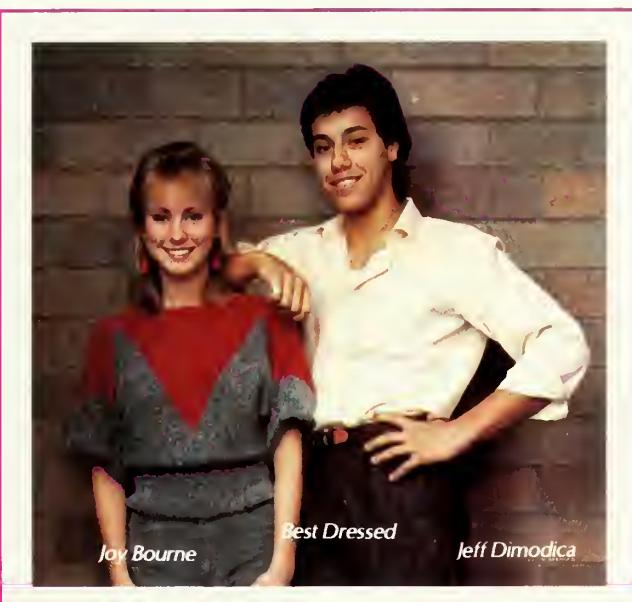

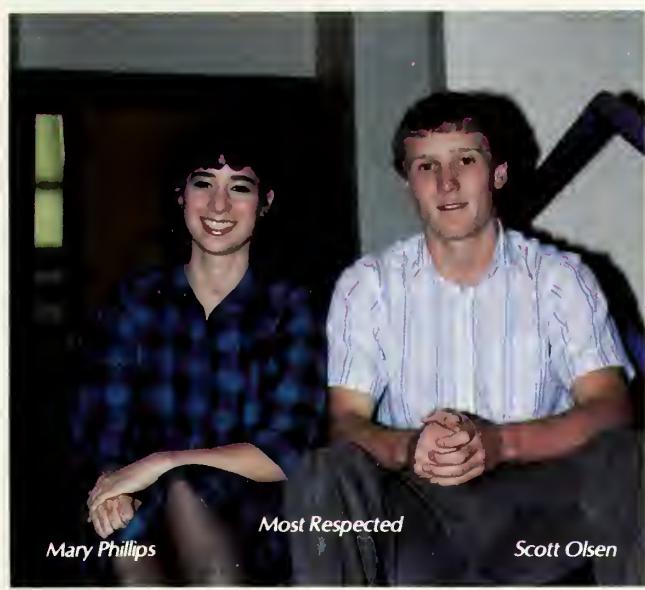

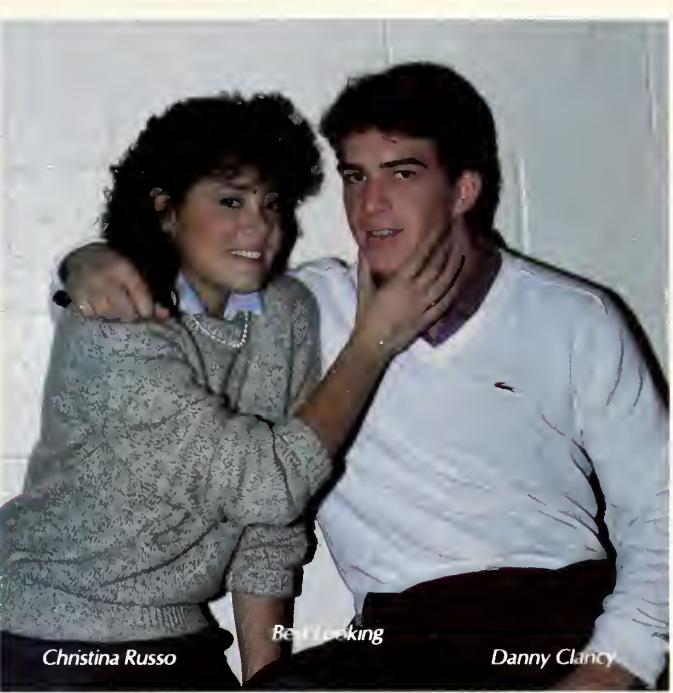

Best Excuses

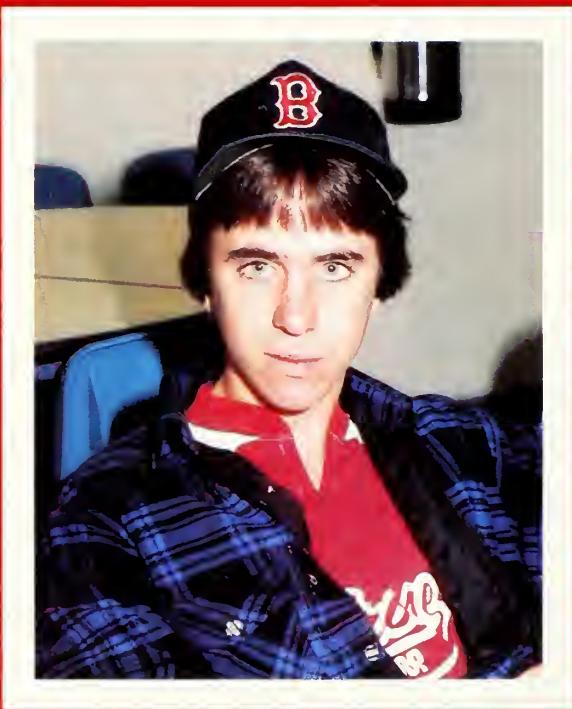

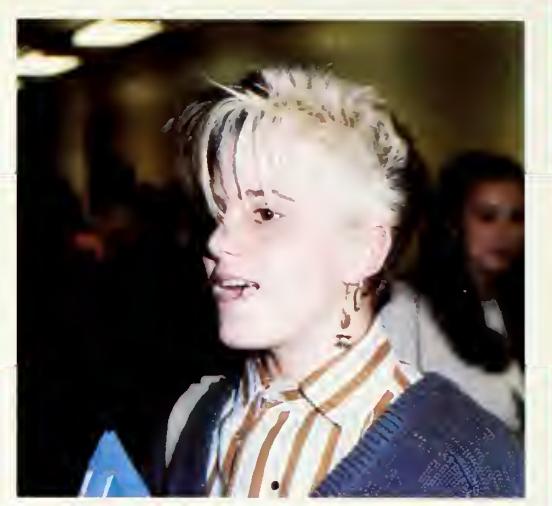

Roger Scott and Tina Miller did not show up for their pictures. We're sure they had a good excuse.

JUNIOR PROM

The junior prom was held at Montvale Plaza on March 16, 1984. King Richard Karelas and Queen Christina Russo reigned over this festive occasion. The prom was inspired by "Always and Forever" which added a perfect touch to an already extravagant evening.

*Always and Forever
Each moment with you —
It's just like a dream
to me
That somehow came true.
And I know tomorrow
will still be the same,
'cause we've got a life of love,
that won't ever change.*

White Ladies

Powder Puff

The White Ladies and the Red Devils went for the glory in our annual powder puff game. Both teams played exceptionally well with the defenses ruling the day. The final score was zero to zero and both teams declared victory.

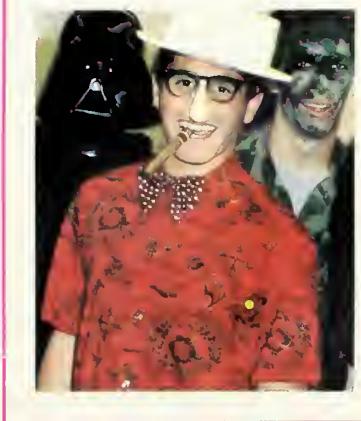

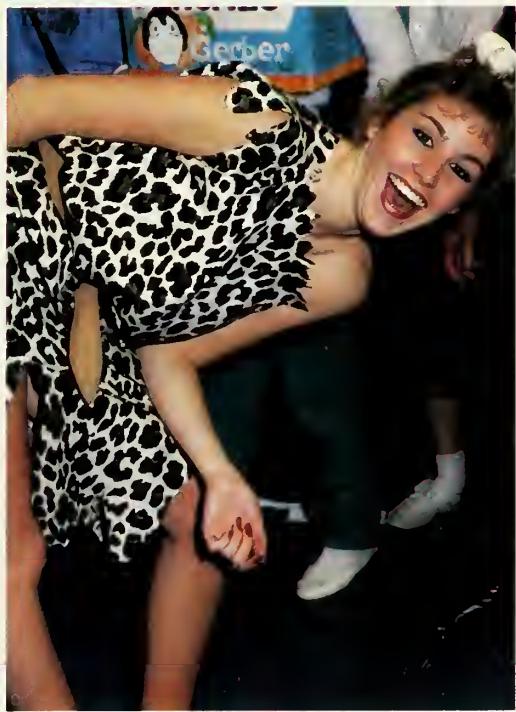

Spectators were almost blinded by the sight of five cheerleaders who really gave it their all. Fortunately these cheerleaders have not been seen since.

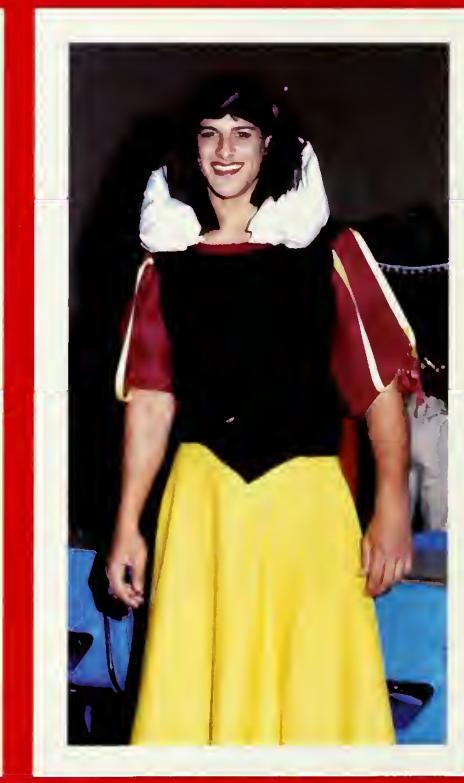

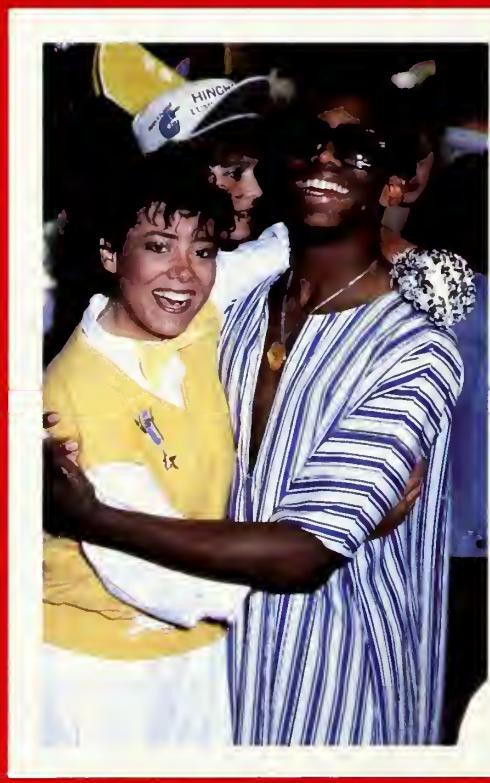

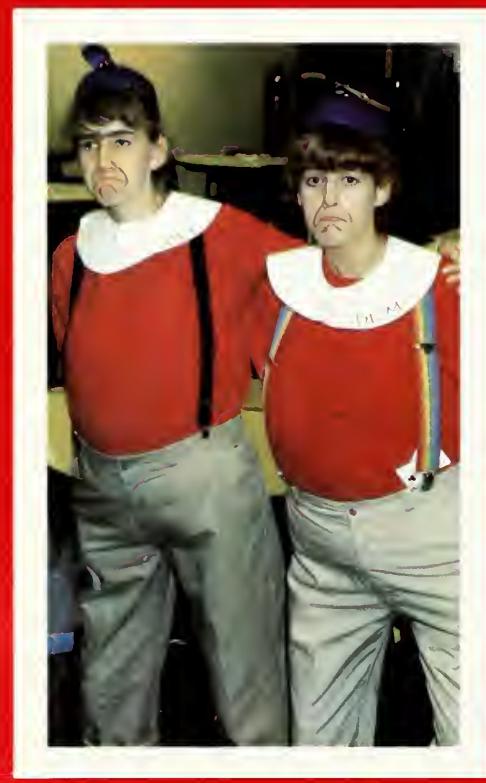

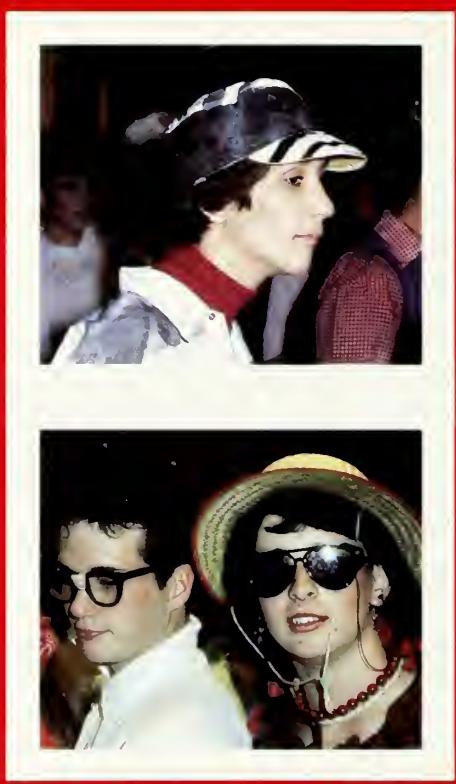

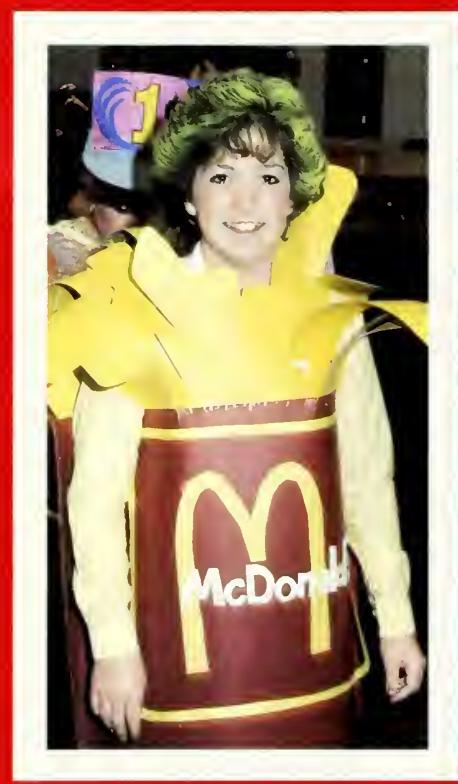

Halloween Party

SENIOR HALLOWEEN PARTY

Michael Jackson, Stevie Wonder, Alfalfa, Buckwheat and the Jolly Green Giant were just a few of the characters that were present at our Halloween Party on October 30, 1984. Some were awarded prizes but all that attended showed exceptional originality. Thanks to our student congress and class advisors, Ms. Carrabis and Ms. McCauley, the party was a huge success.

Winter Ball

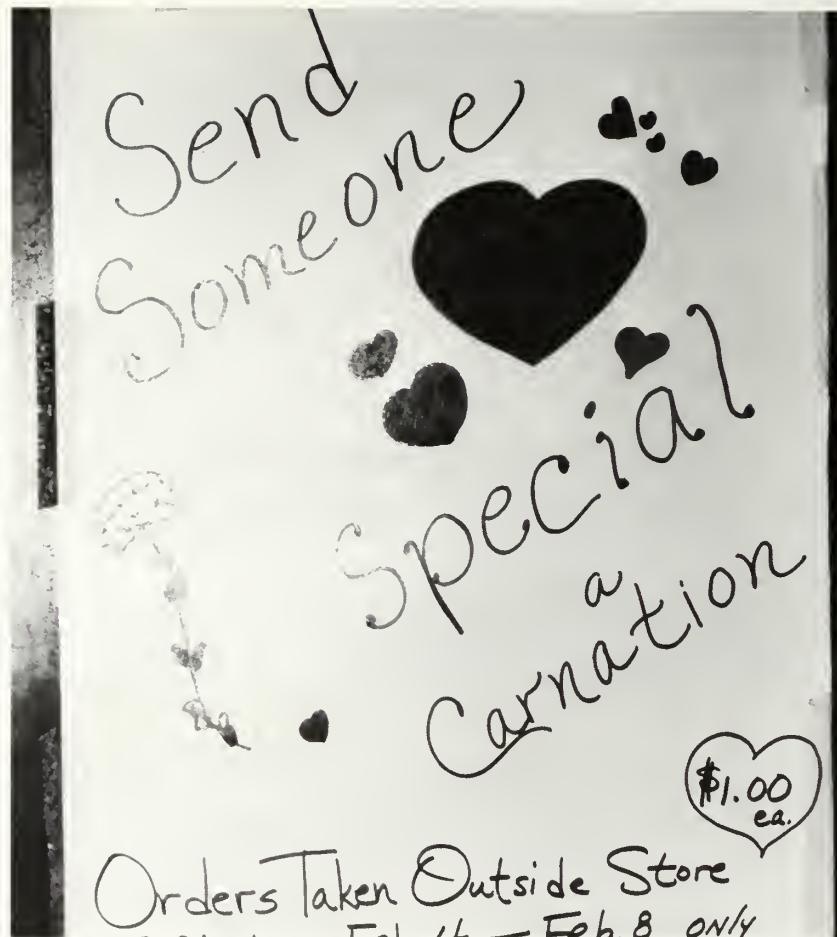

The Winter Ball, originally scheduled for January 17, was postponed, as usual, until the 31st. It was held at the Norman Prince Hall, under the guidance of Ms. Carrabis and Ms. McCauley. As the D.J. spun the tunes, the Seniors danced their hearts away. It was a night filled with magic as the music flowed into the hearts of young lovers. As the night progressed, it was time to leave the funfilled event. Everyone left with a smile on his/her face and a memory to cherish.

CARNATION DAY

Perhaps the favorite fund-raiser at M.H.S. is Carnation Day. The Student Council gives the money raised from Carnation Day to the senior class for Class Day and graduation expenses.

During the week before Valentine's Day, people order carnations for their friends and sweethearts. On Valentine's Day morning, the carnations are delivered to each homeroom. Each senior girl receives an additional carnation as a gift. As always, Carnation Day was a great success.

When the struggle grows weary, sometimes we feel that the road seems all uphill;
the burdens are heavy, the goals are high,
and the pace seems too tough, -

... and turns,

And many a fellow turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out,
Don't give up though the pace seems slow,
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late when the night came down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out-
The silver tints of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit-
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

GOLF

Melrose High School's 1984/85 Golf team had another winning season. The team, coached by Andrea Taffe, finished second (to Lexington) in our league. With an 8-1-2 record, the team encountered only one set-back. Much of the success was due to the skillful play of seniors Jeff McCowan, Michael Garvey, Steve Mortimer, and Laura Hughes who ranked third in the state for junior women golfers. McCowan, Mortimer, Murray and Maher competed for the top four spots.

The Raiders participated in the State Tournament in the Spring of 1985. Mrs. Taffe and the team would like to thank "The General," Mount Hood Golf Club, and Bellevue Golf Club for their active support.

Senior Captain Brian Cann and senior David Fay led a young team that will surely improve in upcoming years. Juniors Anthony Palotta and Ken Mattucci also made major contributions to the team.

Memories include — jungle, Spot Pond, and RIDES IN THE VAN. The team would like to thank Coach MacIntyre for his kindness and coaching expertise.

FIELD HOCKEY

This year, the Field Hockey team had a tremendously successful season. Led by co-captains Bethany Chew and Kathy Zaino, the team ended with a 12-3-3 regular season record. They qualified for the state tournament; beating Peabody in the first round 1-0, then losing to Acton-Boxboro, the defending state champs, 2-1 in the next round.

The highlight of the season came compliments of Bethany Chew. She was chosen athlete-scholar of the week by channel seven. The team was taped by cameramen and the award was presented by John Dennis in front of the whole fall athletic body.

In addition to this honor for the team, Bethany, Jackie Ball, and Kathy Zaino were named Middlesex League All-Stars, and Bethany was named All-Scholastic.

Other Senior members who contributed greatly were: Michelle Prior who played exceptional defense along with Jody Scarborough, Barbara Eriksen and Joanne Lynch. The forward line which scored a total of 43 goals throughout the season can attribute its success to Jill Zibrofski, Laura Ashford, Mary Finnigan, and Patty Foley.

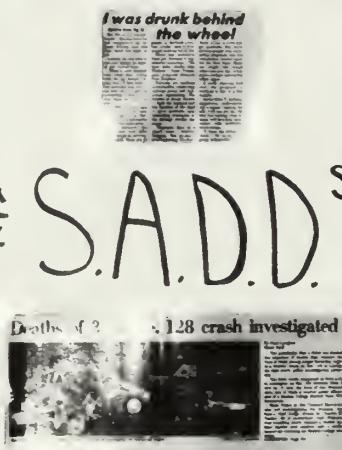

Coach Johnston was extremely enthusiastic and supportive throughout the entire season. She stated many times to her team that this was the best team she had the pleasure of coaching in all her twelve years of experience.

The club concentrated their efforts on May 1, Law Day. They participated in law-related educational activities conducted by the American Bar Association and Local Bar Associations.

The club officers, President George Bibilos, Vice-President Jeff DiModica, Secretary Carolyn Peters and Treasurer Paula Kelliher, did a great job along with club advisor Attorney Richard D. Brown to make this club an exciting and educational experience for all club members.

Students Against Driving Drunk

S.A.D.D.

Alcohol-related car accidents is the number one killer of teenagers today. Here at Melrose High School, the students cared enough about themselves to start a S.A.D.D. (Students Against Driving Drunk) Chapter. The students wanted their schoolmates to be aware of the S.A.D.D. facts, so that we may graduate without a tragedy due to drinking and driving.

Members got some ideas from a general meeting last year in Reading. Forty-five students spent their afternoons in training sessions with Carol Rosenfield of the North Shore Council of Alcoholism. They learned how to approach their classmates and show their concern.

The awareness program began in gym classes before the junior prom last spring. Twenty five members participated, told why they joined S.A.D.D. and showed a film called The Last Prom. The film depicted the death of a young girl due to drinking and driving on her prom night. The program went well and students began thinking about the consequences of driving drunk. Sophomores later went to the Junior High School and talked about S.A.D.D.

At the close of the year, Paul Pacific, from the National S.A.D.D. Organization came and spoke to sophomores and juniors in an assembly to re-enforce awareness at M.H.S.

This year the program started with ninety members — a growth rate of one-hundred percent!!! Members organized committees chaired by Monica Wells (president), Debbie Chew, Laura Azevedo, Mary Faro, Kathy Zaino, Debbie Shea, Tim McLaughlin (vice-president), Debra Dugan (secretary), and Debbie Brown.

On October 29, 1984, the District Attorney of Middlesex county, Mr. Scott Harshbarger, came to M.H.S. and spoke to the senior class about the legal ramifications of driving drunk. In early December, the Members of S.A.D.D., along with advisor Mrs. Kodzis and football coach Mr. MacPherson, attended a press conference held by Governor Dukakis.

S.A.D.D. members passed out booklets on alcoholism, which were donated by the Melrose Police Department, to the parents of juniors and seniors at P.T.O. night last spring.

S.A.D.D., as you can see, worked hard because they care! We here at M.H.S. are very proud of our S.A.D.D. Chapter. The Chapter is divided into the following subcommittees: Steering Committee — Monica Wells, President, Advertising Committee — Debbie Chew, Laura Azevedo, Parent Information/PTO — Mary Faro, Kathy Zaino, Sophomore Training Committee — Debbie Shea, Tim McLaughlin (vice president), Secretaries — Debra Dugan, Debra Brown.

Bloodmobile

Every year the students at Melrose High School sponsor two bloodmobiles. Class officers and Student Congress members organize this project and work as assistants to the Red Cross the day of the Bloodmobile. In addition to filling a vital community health need, the Bloodmobiles instill in all of us a sense of responsibility and pride. The lives of hundreds of people depend upon the kindness shown by those who participate in the MHS Bloodmobiles. What better gift could there possibly be?

Junior/Senior Forum

The Junior/Senior forum is a discussion group which meets at M.H.S. once a week, under the expert supervision of Mr. Freeman Frank.

The group consists of Melrose High School Students, and local Senior Citizens. The forum discussed contemporary issues such as politics, nuclear war, and drug addiction.

A wonderful bridge to the "generation gap" has been built by this forum, which will hopefully continue for many years. Thank you Mr. Frank for providing the students of this school with such a marvelous opportunity.

This year's Pep Club, although smaller than in past years, made up for its small size with its enthusiasm. Strategic Games Club

The 1984/85 Strategic Games Club was an excellent experience for all who participated. The club gave its members a way to challenge their minds.

Games of strategy, tactics, and skill such as "Traveller," "Dungeons and Dragons," "Champions," "Titan," and "Car Wars" place the members in "kill or be killed" situations.

The club was strong throughout the year thanks to advisor Mr. James Hodgkins.

Will always remember: "No Hugo, you can't put a meson gun on a scout ship," "I will DESTROY you!!", and "I pity the fool that tries to board my starship!"

SR.-JR. HIGH ORCHESTRA

The Melrose High School Orchestra consists of approximately 60 members from the high school and selected junior high members. This year the orchestra gained statewide recognition by participating in the Amherst Festival. The members of the orchestra would like to thank Mrs. Weeks for making the trip to New York possible and for making all of our practices and hard work worthwhile.

Drama Club

Melrose High's 1984/85 Drama Club has had an entertainingly successful year. Among their productions were "Harvey" and their production piece "Twain by the Tails."

The members had a great time working together. Some memories of their experiences include: "sizzlers and Ken" - "Flutt hits BROADWAY" - "clouds" and "But that's silly!" The help and expert supervision of advisor Mrs. Beliveau was much appreciated.

Chorus

With nearly eighty members singing in four-part harmony, the 1984/85 chorus was one of the most exciting and successful choruses at M.H.S. in recent years. Under the direction of Mr. Joseph Messina, and student teachers Timothy Merner and Donna Salviati, the chorus entertained many community groups. They were involved with the Special Needs Christmas Party, fund-raising, and were honored to be asked to perform at Disneyworld. Much of the class time was devoted to learning pieces, proper breathing and mouth positioning. The chorus benefited immensely from Mr. Messina's attention.

Seniors will miss "you people are limited" - "crescendo" - "Acapulco?" - "hear the kids crunch" - "How do you shut off the sweaters" - "Washington '83" - "Where's breakfast?" - "Penn trip '84" - "THE FAINTING CHORUS."

THANKS MR. MESSINA, BEST OF LUCK!!

BAND

This year's band was one of the hardest working bands in the past ten years. Their effort was demonstrated when they earned a third place trophy at a competition at Triton Regional High School. From the marching field to the concert season, the band grew and matured into an outstanding group of musicians. They proved their expertise at the annual Winter Concert, Spring Concert, and the seniors final performance, the Pops Concert.

Seniors will never forget: Tennessee '81, Toronto '84, Group Pictures, Cookout in Wayne's room!, M.I.C.A., Portsmouth, Super Bowl '82, feet-TOGETHER, Sextet, Dance in Jellicle, WATCH!, Visuals in Anything Goes (Groucho), Company Front, new box, gong, BERTHA, football games, INDIAN!, "It's a Mace," Thanks Mr. Dunlea, Triton . . . 64.8 points!

Many thanks to Mr. D. our director, great drum majors Brian and Chris, who kept us together!!!, and the BAND-AIDERS.

Layout Staff

The Layout Staff is usually known for the amount of interest generated at picture time and the actual limited number of workers derived from this group. This year was no exception. Editors Chris McHugh and Peter Snow would like to thank the people who contributed to the layout of this year's book.

Rene Barletta, for helping so much just in time for the deadline, Kristen Soucy, Ellen DiGiovanni, Jessica Turley, and Paula Fogarty, for doing layouts along with all their other duties, Lisa Leydon, and special thanks to Brian Donovan for taking over for Pete in his absence.

Editor Paula Fogarty was dedicated and hard-working, as well as greatly appreciated. We would like to give special thanks to John Foreman and Liz MacNamara for their extra help.

Literary Staff

The literary staff, led by editors Jackie Ball, Cindy McLennan, and Maria Marchetti faced a huge task. If they were to be successful, cooperation and time would be essential. A special thanks goes to all the hard-workers involved in this process. We're sure they know who they are!

School Store Staff

During the 1984/85 school year the school store sold many useful items including pens, notebooks and dictionaries. Along with these items many spirited students also purchased Melrose sweatshirts and other Melrose items.

Students and teachers were particularly interested in Christmas gifts this year, so Mrs. Boucher took advantage of the help of Petra Leone and Beth Decker to keep the store running smoothly.

Thanks to Mrs. Boucher's willingness to help, and dedication in decorating the school store for every season, the school store was at its best this year.

Project Bread

Each year before Christmas M.H.S. raises money for Project Bread. Project Bread is a non-profit agency which helps to fund hot meals and food distribution centers. The agency provides food for the growing number of hungry in the greater Boston Area. This year the money raised at M.H.S. through a bakesale, raffle and movie, went to the Melrose Food Pantry and the Pine Street Inn. Many thanks goes to our advisor, Mr. Burr, and also to Mrs. Katz for her much needed help with publicity. Thanks also to the many who so generously donated their time, efforts and money.

Youth and Family Resources

The Youth and Family Resource program (formerly known as 735), becomes more successful each year. The input and cooperation of everyone involved, was incredible. The teenagers training to be counselors learned a lot about themselves, as well as the problems and effects of drugs and alcohol. When the counselors went to each sixth, seventh and eighth graders with facts about drugs and alcohol, they received a great response.

The children learned a lot about peer pressure, so that they will be able to resist it in future years.

Much thanks to advisors Dave and Jodi for all of their time, effort and understanding.

HOCKEY CHEERLEADERS

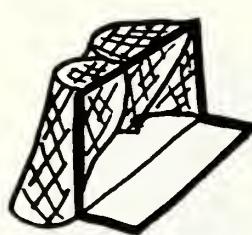

We, the hockey cheerleaders, would like to thank Mrs. Henry for all her help in making this season a successful one. We started a new tradition this year and that was to assign each hockey player a secret cheerleader. The day before a game a player receives gifts from this secret cheerleader. The boys will find out who their cheerleader is at the Hockey Banquet. We would like to say a special thanks to Mrs. Barbato she was like a second adviser to us. We would also like to thank the hockey parents for all their support. We would finally like to wish next year's players and cheerleaders good luck next year. Special memories "She's a schmelly, she's a criggy, she's a lenny!" "Jimbo, don't hit the post!" One last thing, "Gorty, WHY DO YOU HAVE A WHITE HELMET?"

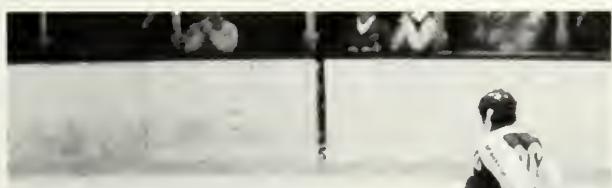

Hockey

The 4-10-4 record achieved by the 84-85 Red Raider Hockey team does not show the level of enthusiasm and eagerness displayed by the team competing in a tough Middlesex League. A great deal of their games were lost by one goal! Helping to keep the team up through these tough losses were Co-captains and all-stars John Connors and Jim Hardy. The offense of the team was generated by seniors, all-star Greg White, Brian Skinner and Bill Leahy. A young defense was expertly led by seniors Mike Crowly and all-star Jay Monlaison. The team would like to thank coach Umile for all his leadership and inspiration.

Senior Class Offices

The class of nineteen hundred eighty-five at Melrose High School was under the expert care of its advisors: Ms. McCauley and Ms. Carrabis.

The officers closely followed Melrose High School traditions. The seniors had a very successful Halloween Party, with an exceptional turnout. In keeping with tradition, we also held the Winter Ball, Carnation Day, the Senior Prom and of course, Class Day.

As a fund-raiser for the class of '85 there was a basketball game consisting of "non-active" senior athletes Vs. the Melrose Police Department.

Student Congress

Student Congress is a group of motivated, socially aware young men and women. They serve as a buffer between the students and the administration. This group performs a variety of functions such as Bloodmobile, Charity Christmas Party, Massachusetts State Advisory Council and student representation of the Melrose School Committee. In addition to these projects, Student Congress members gave feedback to the school in regards to rules, schedules, problem issues, smoking area, etc. They work with their class advisors in organizing the Junior and Senior Proms, Winter Ball, Halloween Party, and Class Day.

Students from both countries get the opportunity to experience different cultures and make many close friends. While in Germany last year the group visited Lubeck, Ratzeburg, Luneburg and of course, Hamburg. Without Mrs. Hennessey and Dr. Dragonas this program would never have been possible. The 1984 team has had twice the turnout of players of the 1983 team. The 1983 team finished second in the North Shore Interscholastic Chess League. This year's team promises a winning season due to the participation and time commitment by its members. Under the leadership of Coach DeGeorge, we will win the North Shore title. Students Against Driving Drunk

S.A.D.D.

Alcohol-related car accidents is the number one killer of teenagers today. Here at Melrose High School, the students cared enough about themselves to start a S.A.D.D. (Students Against Driving Drunk) Chapter. The students wanted their schoolmates to be aware of the S.A.D.D. facts, so that we may graduate without a tragedy due to drinking and driving.

Members got some ideas from a general meeting last year in Reading. Forty-five students spent their afternoons in training sessions with Carol Rosenfield of the North Shore Council of Alcoholism. They learned how to approach their classmates and show their concern.

The awareness program began in gym classes before the junior prom last spring. Twenty five members participated, told why they joined S.A.D.D. and showed a film called The Last Prom. The film depicted the death of a young girl due to drinking and driving on her prom night. The program went well and students began thinking about the consequences of driving drunk. Sophomores later went to the Junior High School and talked about S.A.D.D.

At the close of the year, Paul Pacific, from the National S.A.D.D. Organization came and spoke to sophomores and juniors in an assembly to re-enforce awareness at M.H.S.

This year the program started with ninety members — a growth rate of one-hundred percent!!! Members organized committees chaired by Monica Wells (president), Debbie Chew, Laura Azevedo, Mary Faro, Kathy Zaino, Debbie Shea, Tim McLaughlin (vice-president), Debra Dugan (secretary), and Debbie Brown.

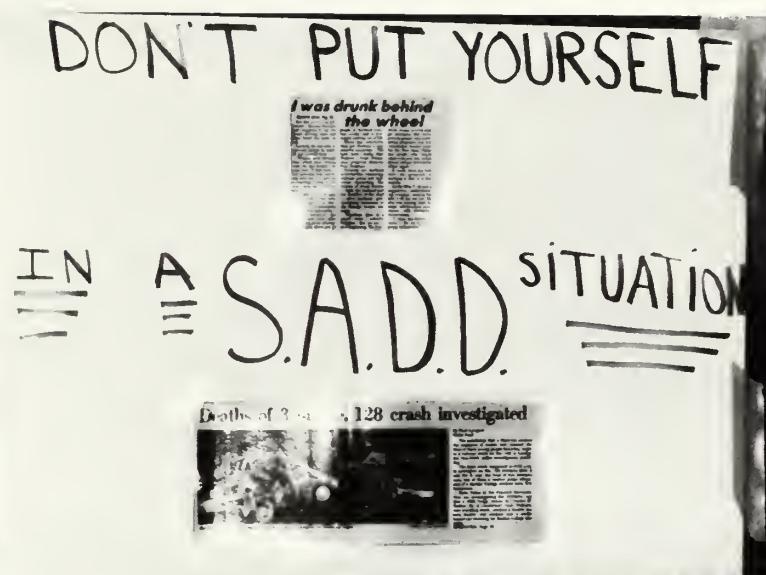

On October 29, 1984, the District Attorney of Middlesex county, Mr. Scott Harshbarger, came to M.H.S. and spoke to the senior class about the legal ramifications of driving drunk. In early December, the Members of S.A.D.D., along with advisor Mrs. Kodzis and football coach Mr. MacPherson, attended a press conference held by Governor Dukakis.

S.A.D.D. members passed out booklets on alcoholism, which were donated by the Melrose Police Department, to the parents of juniors and seniors at P.T.O. night last spring.

S.A.D.D., as you can see, worked hard because they care! We here at M.H.S. are very proud of our S.A.D.D. Chapter. The Chapter is divided into the following subcommittees: Steering Committee — Monica Wells, President, Advertising Committee — Debbie Chew, Laura Azevedo, Parent Information/PTO — Mary Faro, Kathy Zaino, Sophomore Training Committee — Debbie Shea, Tim McLaughlin (vice president), Secretaries — Debra Dugan, Debra Brown.

Law Club

Although the 1984-85 Law Club is still very youthful there was a great turnout this year.

The club concentrated their efforts on May 1, Law Day. They participated in law-related educational activities conducted by the American Bar Association and Local Bar Associations.

The club officers, President George Bibilos, Vice-President Jeff DiModica, Secretary Carolyn Peters and Treasurer Paula Kelliher, did a great job along with club advisor Attorney Richard D. Brown to make this club an exciting and educational experience for all club members.

Comedy Club

This spontaneously assembled club was inspired by an ideal. Their purpose was to keep all our seniors laughing. At the time of this writing we are unsure of their success, but we would like to pay tribute to their very worthy cause, and wish them the best of luck.

Ski Club

The Ski Club, which is in its seventh year at Melrose High School, had a turnout of 55 students this year.

Several Melrose High students were privileged enough to ski the Alps in Innsbruck, Austria, during their February Vacation. For those who could not afford to ski on "the Continent," there was also a trip to Killington, Vermont.

Special thanks to Chaperones: Ms. Flannagan, Mr. Witfin, and Advisor, Mr. Paula.

Pep Club

This year's Pep Club, although smaller than in past years, made up for its small size with its enthusiasm. Each week members of the Pep Club helped to lift school spirit and pride by adorning the cafeteria. We will all have fond memories of early Friday mornings, the "INDIAN, the TURKEY" and all those balloons and streamers. Many thanks to our advisor Mr. James Hodgkins for all his help.

First Row, L. to R.: L. Gorman, D. Corey, C. Granfield, J. Slaney, C. Lennox, M. Huygens. Second Row: M. Matton, J. Pittella, S. Walsh, K. O'Brien, G. Bibilos.

Strategic Games Club

The 1984/85 Strategic Games Club was an excellent experience for all who participated. The club gave its members a way to challenge their minds.

Games of strategy, tactics, and skill such as "Traveller," "Dungeons and Dragons," "Champions," "Titan," and "Car Wars" place the members in "kill or be killed" situations.

The club was strong throughout the year thanks to advisor Mr. James Hodgkins.

Will always remember: "No Hugo, you can't put a meson gun on a scout ship," "I will DESTROY you!!", and "I pity the fool that tries to board my starship!"

Financial Board

The Financial Board consists of a group of Melrose High School students. These students have the responsibility of maintaining and distributing funds.

The board makes decisions concerning the financing of clubs, social events, and several projects.

The board had a most successful year, thanks to Advisor Mr. Claude Croston.

Bloodmobile

Every year the students at Melrose High School sponsor two bloodmobiles. Class officers and Student Congress members organize this project and work as assistants to the Red Cross the day of the Bloodmobile. In addition to filling a vital community health need, the Bloodmobiles instill in all of us a sense of responsibility and pride. The lives of hundreds of people depend upon the kindness shown by those who participate in the MHS Bloodmobiles. What better gift could there possibly be?

Melrose High School students and Melrose senior citizens

The Junior/Senior forum is a discussion group which meets at M.H.S. once a week, under the expert supervision of Mr. Freeman Frank.

The group consists of Melrose High School Students, and local Senior Citizens. The forum discussed contemporary issues such as politics, nuclear war, and drug addiction.

A wonderful bridge to the "generation gap" has been built by this forum, which will hopefully continue for many years. Thank you Mr. Frank for providing the students of this school with such a marvelous opportunity.

They proved their expertise at the annual Winter Concert, Spring Concert, and the seniors final performance, the Pops Concert.

SR.-JR. HIGH ORCHESTRA

The Melrose High School Orchestra consists of approximately 60 members from the high school and selected junior high members. This year the orchestra gained statewide recognition by participating in the Amherst Festival. The members of the orchestra would like to thank Mrs. Weeks for making the trip to New York possible and for making all of our practices and hard work worthwhile.

Drama Club

Melrose High's 1984/85 Drama Club has had an entertainingly successful year. Among their productions were "Harvey" and their production piece "Twain by the Tails."

The members had a great time working together. Some memories of their experiences include: "sizzlers and Ken" – "Fluff hits BROADWAY" – "clouds" and "But that's silly!" The help and expert supervision of advisor Mrs. Beliveau was much appreciated.

First Row, L. to R.: K. Matteucci, J. McDonald, K. McCarthy, J. Cotting, B. McCabe, T. Tisei. Second Row: L. McCarthy, N. Valerio, K. Durham, M. Curran, B. Reilly, M. McNamara. Third Row: R. Armstrong, M. Sherman, M. Remond, J. Curran.

Chorus

With nearly eighty members singing in four-part harmony, the 1984/85 chorus was one of the most exciting and successful choruses at M.H.S. in recent years. Under the direction of Mr. Joseph Messina, and student teachers Timothy Merner and Donna Salviati, the chorus entertained many community groups. They were involved with the Special Needs Christmas Party, fund-raising, and were honored to be asked to perform at Disneyworld. Much of the class time was devoted to learning pieces, proper breathing and mouth positioning. The chorus benefited immensely from Mr. Messina's attention.

Seniors will miss "you people are limited" – "crescendo" – "Acapulco?" – "hear the kids crunch" – "How do you shut off the sweaters" – "Washington '83" – "Where's breakfast?" – "Penn trip '84" – "THE FAINTING CHORUS."

THANKS MR. MESSINA, BEST OF LUCK!!

School Store Staff

During the 1984/85 school year the school store sold many useful items including pens, notebooks and dictionaries. Along with these items many spirited students also purchased Melrose sweatshirts and other Melrose items.

Students and teachers were particularly interested in Christmas gifts this year, so Mrs. Boucher took advantage of the help of Petra Leone and Beth Decker to keep the store running smoothly.

Thanks to Mrs. Boucher's willingness to help, and dedication in decorating the school store for every season, the school store was at its best this year.

Project Bread

Each year before Christmas M.H.S. raises money for Project Bread. Project Bread is a non-profit agency which helps to fund hot meals and food distribution centers. The agency provides food for the growing number of hungry in the greater Boston Area. This year the money raised at M.H.S. through a bakesale, raffle and movie, went to the Melrose Food Pantry and the Pine Street Inn. Many thanks goes to our advisor, Mr. Burr, and also to Mrs. Katz for her much needed help with publicity. Thanks also to the many who so generously donated their time, efforts and money.

Youth and Family Resources

The Youth and Family Resource program (formerly known as 735), becomes more successful each year. The input and cooperation of everyone involved, was incredible. The teenagers training to be counselors learned a lot about themselves, as well as the problems and effects of drugs and alcohol. When the counselors went to each sixth, seventh and eighth graders with facts about drugs and alcohol, they received a great response.

The children learned a lot about peer pressure, so that they will be able to resist it in future years.

Much thanks to advisors Dave and Jodi for all of their time, effort and understanding.

Layout Staff

The Layout Staff is usually known for the amount of interest generated at picture time and the actual limited number of workers derived from this group. This year was no exception. Editors Chris McHugh and Peter Snow would like to thank the people who contributed to the layout of this year's book.

Rene Barletta, for helping so much just in time for the deadline, Kristen Soucy, Ellen DiGiovanni, Jessica Turley, and Paula Fogarty, for doing layouts along with all their other duties, Lisa Leydon, and special thanks to Brian Donovan for taking over for Pete in his absence.

First Row, L. to R.: M. Faro, L. Leydon, E. McNamara, C. McHugh, B. Donovan, S. Cranley, M. Reid, M. Phillips. Second Row: J. Zibrofski, J. Lynch, B. McDonough, C. Peters, M. Huygens, N. Flanagan, M. Photography Staff

The 1985 LOG photography staff was indeed, outstanding. Through the midst of confusion generally accompanying picture time, an organized, quick-thinking staff emerged. Editor Paula Fogarty was dedicated and hard-working, as well as greatly appreciated. We would like to give special thanks to John Foreman and Liz MacNamara for their extra help.

Literary Staff

The literary staff, led by editors Jackie Ball, Cindy McLennan, and Maria Marchetti faced a huge task. If they were to be successful, cooperation and time would be essential. A special thanks goes to all the hard-workers involved in this process. We're sure they know who they are!

Typing Staff

Without Robin McCarthy, typing editor, this yearbook would not have been possible. Robin worked long-hard hours to see that we met our deadlines. The editors would like to express their appreciation for her dedication. We are sure Robin would like to give special thanks to her staff for all their help.

First Row, L. to R.: R. Martin, L. Kelly, R. McCarthy, S. Clark. Second Row: J. Bourne.

Subscription Staff

Editor Brian Donovan sold more yearbooks than ever before. His accomplishments can be attributed to his persistence and salesmanship. A special thanks to Cydney Bonna for her "LOUD" announcements and to Ellen DiGiovanni for her "Co Editing," also Brian would like to thank all his homeroom representatives.

Log Editors

In the beginning we had a "blueprint" for success — and thus we established our theme: High School is the blueprint for your life.

Our first thoughts were "This is gonna be fun . . . Hey, we've got power!"

But that was before the deadlines hit the fan.

Then our second thoughts set in. The pressure was on. There were many forlorn glances towards the clock as darkness set in. Worse, the work was only just beginning.

"Where's the lock? . . . What's the number for Domino's? . . . It's five o'clock already? . . . Did you bring your car? . . . Faculty, faculty, faculty . . . communication breakdown! . . . Well Brian, do you have a better idea? . . . Oh no, we did them all wrong? . . . Who's got the Tylenol? . . . You're kidding! . . . The film's ruined? . . . All this will lead to a Lamborgheni won't it? . . . We can do what ever we want, we're EDITORS! . . . I really need peanut M&M's . . . Who's going for drinks? . . . A fifty — what page deadline? . . . Is it a grid or a grate? . . . Peter's endless wise cracks . . . The Chippendales . . . THE LIST . . . JET . . . What a caption! . . . She would die if we put that in! . . . Is she really in that club? . . . Love ya buddy! . . . Oh no, forget it . . . Fritos! . . . A good time was had by all . . . Exhaustion, headaches, anxiety, but the construction went ahead, according to plans.

And there you have it.

Our yearbook is finished — in our minds, the best ever.

If our school years are in fact a "blueprint" for our lives, this yearbook records what may be some of our most memorable and significant times.

Here's to bigger and better plans for the future!

Retirees

MARIE DiSISTO

Marie DiSisto has been with the Melrose Public School System since 1967. Over the seventeen years that Mrs. DiSisto was a secretary, she fulfilled various duties. In 1967, she was hired as a part-time floating secretary. By the beginning of 1969, she was working full-time at Melrose High School.

She added immeasurably to the development of several assistant principals. She worked with Mr. Banks, Mr. Cole, Mr. LaRosa and most recently, Mr. Frontero . . .

Marie DiSisto has been an excellent secretary, a lovely lady and a good friend at the high school. Her loyalty, intelligence and love for children has left a lasting impression on the hearts of those she so generously served. Her retirement, on October 1, 1984 brought a great void to this school which will be difficult to fill. Thank you Mrs. DiSisto for your many years of dedicated service at Melrose High School.

THOMAS P. KEATING

Thomas P. Keating, started with the Melrose Public School System in 1958 as a custodian at the Horace Mann School. In 1966, Tom came to the Melrose High School as a member of the Maintenance Department. Tom also worked as a messenger bringing messages from the superintendent to different school buildings, hence the nickname "Tom the mailman." Tom will have spent 27 years with the school system upon his retirement in June of 1985. Thank you Tom.

"Trust the Gorton's Fisherman."

"Ahh . . . Ah, Ah, Ah . . ."

"The itsy, bitsy spider crawled up the waterspout . . ."

"Who you callin' stupid?"

"May I have this dance?"

"Sometimes you just have to say 'What the . . .'"

"Do you know how long it took me to find a tie to match this jacket?"

"Late again?"

Thank You

We the Editors of the 1985 LOG, would like to acknowledge a special thanks to the following for their special contributions. Without their help, this book would have been an impossibility.

The Custodial Staff – for helping us out, and in Mrs. Fisher – for her supplies and deletions

Mrs. Lochhead – for her financial assistance

Mr. Frontero and Mr. Hurley – for their announcements

Mrs. Hooton and Mrs. Moulaison – for typing assistance

Mr. Paula and his drafting classes – for their "drafting"

Mr. J. Hughes' D block class – for their clerical assistance

Mr. Humphreys – for his senior class print outs

Mike Horan – for his salesmanship

Tracy Hatfield and Kelly McLaughlin – for their photography

Leslie Picco – for her organization assistance

Rene Barletta – for her copying ability

MR. JOHN HUGHES – FOR EVERYTHING!

Guys, what can I say? I don't even know where to begin. You gave up half of your Senior year – but not in vain. Your dedication, time, creativity, and hard work produced a great book. The proof is evident and will always be there to remind you of your potential.

We put in a lot of time together and I can truthfully say that I spent my afternoons with a great bunch of people. I'm proud of ya! We did it!!

Robyn, thank you for your time and skill.

Jackie, Maria, and Cindy, thank you for your flair and punctuality.

Cydney, thank you for being so colorful. (and having a car!)

Brian, thank for . . . no, forget it. (only kidding) your humor.

Paula, thank you for your laugh.

Peter, thank you for your creative eye, and Sigmund etc.

Ellen, thank you for your weekends, "friendliness," excuses, and personality.

Christine, thank you for your weekends, long nights, persistence, and your sanity.

Kristin, thank you for your weekends, advice, forcefulness, encouragement, wit, and tons more.

Mr. Hughes, thank you for always being there. Your advice, leadership, creativity, and wisdom meant more than anyone could ever know. Without you, there would be no LOG. You gave us all a sense of responsibility, and a feeling of accomplishment.

Thanks Again Everybody!!

Love,

Jessica (JET)

Brian Donovan

When we began this project we had no idea what we were in for. Over a period of five months we really got to know each other. I have a few personal thanks I would like to extend. Thank you Christine for your serious attitude and dedication to these pages. Cyd, thanks for your advice about men and the thousands of rides home. Peter, my thanks for letting your imagination show so vividly in your layouts. I don't think a day went by without everyone getting a chuckle caused by Brian. The Log office would have been barren if Paula didn't fill it with her infectious laugh. Ellen, dear Ellen, nice mouth Buddy, but we all love ya anyway. Jessica Erin Turley (JET) we had a slow beginning and communications were a mess. As the deadlines passed, however, we realized we should work together and make this the best book possible. I feel we've succeeded. We have gone from acquaintances to close friends – I'll miss you. Above all, the man behind the scenes that makes it all happen, John Hughes. His favorite saying was "you can do anything, you're Editors!" Well, thanks to Mr. Hughes we've learned we can do anything, just because we're us.

Kris

The editors of this book did an outstanding job and I would like to thank each of them for their contributions. Literary Editors Jackie Ball, Cynthia McLennan and Maria Marchetti collected, wrote and edited each and every word on these pages. Business and financial matters were expertly handled by Advertising Editor Ellen DiGiovanni and Sales Editor Brian Donovan. Photography Editor Paula Fogarty did a fine job taking pictures and coordinating the many students who photographed various activities. Typing Editor Robin McCarthy typed or supervised the typing of each of the thousands of characters before you.

We owe thanks for the visual design of this book to the able hands and minds of Layout Editors Christine McHugh and Peter Snow and Art Editor Cydney Bonna. Their creativity and consistency was the key to any success we have had.

The leadership and organizational skill necessary for the completion of a task of this magnitude was provided by Editor-in-Chief Jessica Turley and Administrative Editor Kristen Soucy. Jessica and Kristen led by example. They worked hard and ensured that everyone else did the same. This book would not have been completed without them.

John Hughes
